Co-operators Canadian Fixed Income Fund

Co-operators Life Insurance Company | December 31, 2024

Who is this Fund for?

For investors seeking a fixed income investment with the potential for interest income and a medium to long-term investment horizon. Investors should be comfortable with small ups and downs of the market.

How much does it cost?

The following shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell units of the fund.

1. Surrender Charges

Surrender Charge Option	What you pay	How it works
Back-end load	If you sell all of your funds in: Less than 2 years 4.5% 2, but less than 3 4% 3, but less than 4 3.5% 4, but less than 5 3% 5, but less than 6 2.5% After 6 years 0%	The deferred sales charge is a set rate. It is deducted from the amount that you sell. When you make a deposit, Co-operators pays your financial advisor a commission of 3%. If you have an RRSP or non-registered account you can withdraw 10% of the value of the units of your segregated funds at December 31 without paying a deferred sales charge. You can switch to units of other funds under the policy without paying a deferred sales charge.
No-load		There are no deferred sales charges.

2. Ongoing Fund Expense

The Management Expense Ratio (MER) includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantee works, see your Policy and Information Folder. For details on the MER, please see the Information Folder.

Surrender Charge Option	MER (annual rate as a % of the fund value)
Back-end load	1.64%

3. Other Fees

You may pay other fees when you sell or transfer units of the fund.

Withdrawal service fee:	$25 after the first withdrawal each calendar year
Interfund transfer fee:	$20 after the fourth interfund transfer each calendar year

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation or five business days after it is mailed. You have to tell us in writing (email, fax, or letter) that you want to cancel. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount you invested or the value of the fund if it has gone down. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction.

You can also change your mind about subsequent transactions you make under the policy within two business days from the date you received confirmation. In this case, the right to cancel only applies to the new transaction.
